WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOV. 27, 1907.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:59 a. m. and sets at 4:39 p. m. High water at 1:17 a. m. and 1:53 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair tonight and Wednesday; fresh southwest to west winds.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Tomorrow will be Thanksgiving Day and will be partly observed as a holiday. The banks and federal offices will be closed, the schools will be given holiday, the municipal offices and many of the stores will be closed early and the post-office will observe Sunday hours. Many Alexandrians will engage in a day's hunting in the neighboring counties while others Alexandrians engaged in business elsewhere will spend the day at their old homes.

In some of the churches services appropriate to the day will be held as follows: Christ Church, services at 11 a. m.; St. Paul's, services at 11 a. m.; Grace Church, services at 11 a. m.; First Baptist Church, union services at 11 a. m. of the congregations of the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches, with sermon by Rev. E. V. Rye; St. Mary's Church, services at 6:30 and 8 a. m.; Lutheran Church, services at 11 a. m.

BUSINESS INCREASING.

Business at the new union passenger station adjoining this city has been steadily increasing since the two-cent rate went into effect. About five hundred persons take evening trains at the new depot. The reason is apparent and was given in a succinct manner by a man in Washington a day or two ago. "That new station in Washington is a beauty all right," said he, "but my advice to all persons coming from Richmond to Washington is to get off the train at Alexandria and take a street car to the capital. By getting off at Alexandria you save a little money. The fare from Richmond is $2.15. If you buy a ticket to Washington it is $3.50, or $1.35 for a ride of eight miles on the steam cars. The fare on the electric cars is 15 cents. The difference in time is worth the difference in money. Besides, you get a car at the terminus of the Alexandria line, and go to any old place for a nickel, thereby saving 45 cents of the cab fare. There are some ways to get even with the railroad if the public will exercise a little ingenuity."

THE DAILEY QUARTETTE.

The announcement that the Dailey Quartette of Philadelphia will come to this city next Monday and remain for ten days will be received with unusual interest. They are coming to assist in the evangelistic meeting at the Second Presbyterian Church, and will sing special pieces as well as lead congregational singing every morning and evening during the series. Mr. Dailey, his son and two daughters have been heard here before, and every one who heard them is enthusiastic over their coming. Rev. Richard Orme Flinn, of Atlanta, who will conduct the service, is a pastor and preacher of unusual power and attractiveness. He will conduct a Bible study class at 10:30 each morning, and will preach every evening at 7:30. All in the city are invited to the services.

FOOTBALL.

The Alexandria Athletic Club and the Warwick Athletic Club, of Washington, will play a game of football near Oolross, Thanksgiving morning at 10:30 o'clock. The Warwick now hold the championship of the District of Columbia and the Alexandria's hope to defeat them tomorrow.

The Alexandria Athletic Club football team will play the Randolph Macon Academy team of Front Royal, on the old fair grounds Thanksgiving Day at 2:30 p. m. sharp. The Alexandria line up will be made from the following players—Ale (capt.); Chilcott (mgr); Green, McBride, Stanton, Cockrell K, Cockrell K, Hayden, Cook, Robinson, Meade, Hall, Hamilton and Howard.

SENT ON TO THE GRAND JURY.

The case of Toots Olden, colored, charged with assaulting and robbing Thomas Colbert, also colored, came up in the Police Court this morning. Commonwealth's Attorney Brent conducted the prosecution. The assault and robbery occurred last Wednesday night at the corner of Princess and Washington streets. Olden was sent on to the grand jury.

William Watson, who yesterday entered a residence on King street and took therefrom a silk umbrella, was brought before the court this morning. He, too, was sent to the grand jury.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Fitzgerald Council Knights of Columbus will hold their regular monthly social session tonight. The following prominent members of the order will be present and deliver addresses: Rev. Walter B. Noon, O. P., of Des Moines Council; Eugene P. O'Neill, ex-Mayor of Phoenix, Ariz., and Grand Knight of Phoenix Council, and Jno. J. O'Neill, of Scranton, Pa., Diocesan President of the Father Matthew Total Abstinence Society. The address will be interspersed with music and literary numbers. J. J. O'Shea, e. q., Washington's well-known elocutionist, being down for a recitation.

DEATH OF MRS. McDONOUGH.

Mrs. Harriett W. McDonough died this afternoon at 3 o'clock at her residence, 219 south Royal street. Mrs. McDonough came here from Hoboken, N. J., during the late war, her husband, the late F. M. McDonough, having charge of the commissary department stationed there at the soldier's rest. She had been a member of Trinity M. E. Church for 30 years. Mrs. McDonough leaves one daughter, Mrs. F. E. Ludwig, of Braddock Heights, and four grandchildren, children of the late Anna C. Baggett.

CAR OFF THE TRACK.

The trailer of a north bound electric train was derailed near the intersection of King and Fairfax streets about ten o'clock last night and ran west on King street half a square before the train was stopped. At that time the rear end of the trailer was almost to the curb on the north side of the street. The passengers were transferred to the motor car which proceeded to Washington. The derailed car was not replaced upon the track until this morning.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

William Watson, charged with entering a dwelling and stealing therefrom a silk umbrella, was sent on to the grand jury.

R. Bert Dwyer, colored, charged with using abusive language towards an acquaintance, was dismissed.

A white man, suspected of lunacy, was sent to jail.

Toots Olden, colored, charged with assaulting and robbing Thomas Colbert, also colored, was sent on to the grand jury.

A man, charged with assault, was dismissed.

PLANKING REMOVED.

The planking which formerly surrounded the Fayette street depot has been removed. The men who were engaged in the work were unable to say what the Washington Southern Railway Company proposes to do with the old structure. They were merely ordered to remove the planking. The platform on the east was on what should have been the pavement on the east side of Fayette street, between Cameron and Queen.

DONATION DAY.

Tomorrow, Thanksgiving Day, will be Donation Day at the Alexandria Hospital and the managers earnestly request contributions of groceries, provisions, household articles, &c., from the citizens. Each year a large number of patients are treated gratuitously at the hospital, but it is only through the hearty co-operation of its many friends that its measure of usefulness has been so large.

NAVAJO AND MY GRACE.

At Bennington on yesterday, Navajo won the steeplechase, the finish being the best of any steeplechase during this meeting. On Saturday last My Grace won the steeplechase at the same place. Both horses are owned by Mr. C. W. C. Smith, of Alexandria county.

PERSONAL.

Mr. John Eatwile, who has been ill for some time, was taken to Providence Hospital in Washington today for treatment.

Miss Flora Becker has gone to New York to visit relatives.

CHILDREN'S HOME.

The Children's Home will be open tomorrow from 8 a. m. until 10 p. m. to receive Thanksgiving donations, and the managers hope the good people of this city will respond liberally, as this is a worthy object.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The little daughter of Fanny Smith, colored, who was so seriously burned at the fire here the old canal yesterday afternoon, died at the Alexandria Hospital a few hours after she had been taken to that institution.

The funeral of the late David B. Cook took place this morning, at 10 o'clock, from Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaking establishment. Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher, pastor of the Baptist Church, officiated and the interment was in the National Cemetery.

The fair being held this evening from 4 to 10 p. m. by the Girls' Friendly Society in the parish hall of Christ Church, offers an opportunity to those wishing pretty hand-made articles, embroideries, etc., for Christmas gifts, at moderate prices.

The annual memorial services will be held at the Opera House next Sunday night by the Alexandria Elks. The preparations have been completed and an interesting program will be presented. Congressman Shepard, of Texas, will be the orator of the occasion.

Six forfeitures of collateral for violation of the milk law were recorded in the Police Court in Washington, yesterday, against those charged with the violation of the pure food law.

The ground on St. Asaph street between King and Cameron streets, Mr. P. T. Harrington will erect a large livery stable, is being cleared and gotten ready for the builders.

A rehearsal was held last night at Lee Camp Hall by those who will give a minstrel entertainment this winter for the benefit of the Old Dominion Boat Club.

Mr. Luther Carter has sold two horses to Chas. E. McVey, two to W. R. McVey and one to E. P. Hughes. The horses are situated at Monroe.

On Friday at 4 p. m. at Grace Church, the three branches of Women's Auxiliary will have an interesting session—Eve of St. Andrew.

The collection in most of the churches tomorrow, Thanksgiving Day, will be for the benefit of the Alexandria Elks. On Saturday St. Andrew's Day, Holy Communion will be celebrated at 7 a. m., at Grace Church.

Turkeys sold at retail today at from 20 to 25 cents a pound, and the supply is limited.

A Significant Prayer.

"May the Lord help you make Bucklen's Arnica Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the place of a salve for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c at all drug stores.

Bank Officers in Danger.

New York, Nov. 27.—Following the tragic death of Howard Maxwell, disgraced President of the Borough Bank of Brooklyn, who cut his throat yesterday, the statement that Arthur Campbell, cashier of the institution had turned State's evidence and the riotous scenes that followed the arrest of three Jenkins Brothers has cast Brooklyn into a turbulent state. In consequence all of the persons directly concerned in the closing of the various banks have been warned to keep off the streets, as police fear they may be assaulted.

Panic in an Asylum.

Morristown, N. J., Nov. 27.—Fire of mysterious origin in the top floor of the house occupied by the women nurses employed in the Morris Plains state asylum for the insane caused a panic among the patients early today and the attendants had great difficulty preventing a wild stampede. No one escaped, however, and the firemen worked so quickly that the fire was confined to the nurses' house. The nurses were driven out of their beds by the smoke and many suffered from fright and shock.

Watson Ends His Journey.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Edward Payson Watson began his triumphant entry into Chicago at 9:45 this morning. Michigan avenue was lined with people. He was escorted by twenty-five mounted police to prevent his progress being blocked. Members of the Illinois Athletic Club also attended him.

Weston finished at 12:15 p. m. his 1,800-mile journey on foot from Portland, Me., to Chicago, in one of the greatest demonstrations Chicago has ever seen.

Killed Wife and Himself.

London, Ohio, Nov. 27.—Charles Neer, aged 45, a wealthy farmer, living near this place, shot his crippled wife dead while in a drunken frenzy. He came home intoxicated. After killing his wife he turned the gun on himself. The first shot was not successful. He then calmly reloaded his revolver and killed himself at the second shot. The shots aroused his daughter and her aged grand mother, but at the point of the gun and under threats of instant death he forced them back into their rooms.

Woman Commits Suicide.

New York, Nov. 27.—Mrs. Viola Pittfield, wife of the building superintendent of the hippodrome, committed suicide by inhaling illuminating gas at her home today. Her body was found by her husband seated in a chair in her room with the end of a hose attached to a gas pipe firmly clutched in her mouth. The couple had been married two years, and Pittfield knew no reason why she killed herself.

A fire in the basement of the Ekleton Hotel, at Stanton, Monday night, caused great commotion, the house filling with smoke and the lights being extinguished in the efforts of the firemen to put out the fire.
